

THE SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME JULY 24, 2016

A Note from Fr. Joe ...

This Sunday's Readings challenge us to reflect on our communication with God. In the midst of these summer days, can we take some time to reflect on our prayer life? A major characteristic of a healthy spiritual life, of a healthy prayer life is summed up in one word, which Jesus himself uses in the Gospel – "persistence." God knows what we need, even before we ask. But our perseverance in prayer really can help us consider what we're asking God, to distinguish our needs from our wants, and sincerely to recognize, to listen to God's response. Do we believe that God's horizon is infinitely broader than ours? Do we trust that God always has our best interests at heart?

Notice in our 1st Reading from Genesis how persistent Abraham is! He's developed a close, personal relationship with God. Ultimately, prayer is an open, honest conversation with the One whom Jesus teaches us to call "Father" – Abba, Dad, Parent. But God never forces the relationship. We can choose freely. Maybe perseverance isn't so much the issue for some, as it is a lack of practice or a mindless, less than heartfelt routine. Do we make the time to talk with God? Honestly and forthrightly? As Abraham declares, "See how I am presuming to speak with my Lord." Or have we let the words we do utter become so rote that we fail to reflect on what we're even saying?

Too easily we can take for granted a beautiful, yet familiar, prayer like the one that Jesus taught us. The Lord's Prayer, according to St. Augustine, is the perfect prayer. First because it comes directly to us from Christ, but also because it contains key elements in our communication with God: praise, petition, and contrition. So as we make our way through summer, let's resolve to make the prayer that Jesus gave us a meaningful part of our routine and to work at trusting in his assurance that talking with God is effective, regardless of the response – or how and when it comes. As Augustine concludes, "it's on the Lord's own door you must knock...God has nothing better to give you than himself...what can be enough for you if God isn't?" (Sermon 105, 1-4)

As we've been communicating in the bulletin over the past few weeks, this weekend we warmly welcome Fr. Linus Nangwele to our parish. If you haven't had the chance before now, please see my separate Special Note. This is an opportunity for all of us not only to share from our treasure, but also to offer our prayers for the missionary work of the Church. If you miss the collection at Mass, you still can drop off a donation during the week or put it in next Sunday's passing of the basket. Please put it in an envelope marked "Ghana".

God Bless!
Fr. Joe

Stewardship Thought for the Week

"Ask and you will receive, seek and you will find, knock and the door will be opened to you." Luke 11:9

Jesus assures us that if we ask Him, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that in our culture we often confuse what we really need with what we simply want. Many people need very little. However, we usually want so much more. A good steward only asks God for what he needs.

Thank you for your generosity for the weekend of July 16 and 17, 2016.

Number of Envelopes	349
Envelope Amount	$14,635.00

A SPECIAL NOTE FROM FR. JOE

Each summer, we host a Mission Appeal here in the parish, on behalf of the Pontifical Mission Societies. This year it is this weekend, as we warmly welcome Rev. Linus Nangwele, Ph.D., U.S. Mission Coordinator for the Apostolic Vicariate of Donkorkrom in Ghana, Africa. It's an opportunity for us to be neighbors to our sisters and brothers, who live half way across the globe, and to experience the meaning of being 'catholic' – that is, part of the universal Church, the Body of Christ. Here's a brief snapshot of the Apostolic Vicariate of Donkorkrom:

- It's located in the "Afram Plains" in the eastern region of the nation of Ghana (which is in western Africa) in the Volta River Basin. This is one of the most isolated and economically impoverished parts of the country.
- The District of Donkorkrom covers an area of 4,285 sq. km. (or 1,655 sq. mi.) – just a little bigger than the state of Rhode Island.
- It has a population of 160,000, rising rapidly, mainly due to immigration; 17,000 (around 10%) are Catholics, distributed in 7 parishes and 98 mission stations, served by 12 priests (3 diocesan and 9 religious of the Society of the Divine Word,) 110 catechists, and 7 religious sisters.
- The Apostolic Vicariate is in the process of becoming a Diocese; the goals of the 2016 Mission Appeal include, but are not limited to:
 - The construction of a Cathedral
 - The construction of Elementary Schools and Medical Centers
 - The provision of pastoral and catechetical formation for seminarians, catechists and other laity.

Please be the good stewards that you always are, sharing both your treasure and your prayers.

Thank you! Fr. Joe

IMPORTANT UPDATED PARKING AND TRAFFIC INFORMATION

Villanova University continues to provide us updates regarding progress on the Design Concept for Lancaster Avenue. Please be sure to go to the front page of our parish website for more information, including a link to valuable maps related to the construction activity. Here are a few highlights directly related to parking and the Villanova Church:

- Work continues on the new surface parking lot being created around Moriarty, Griffin, and Geraghty Halls along Lancaster Avenue. This aspect of Phase I of the project began and is now scheduled to be completed by the end of July. This new lot will be available to parishioners for Church parking.
 - Phase II of the Design Concept has begun and will include construction of a pedestrian bridge at Church Walk. This will begin in early Spring, 2017. The small Visitor Lot across from the Church will stay closed during this phase, but, once again, the new surface parking lot and the West Main Parking Lot will be open to parishioners. Various other construction projects on Lancaster Avenue will begin this Summer and continue through December.
- * As always, if you have special mobility needs, you're welcome to park on campus by the Church. Just please be sure to be respectful of spaces for the friars by the Monastery.

Thanks for your ongoing patience and cooperation!

What is Walking with Purpose?

It's a chance to meet other Catholic women and know you're not alone in trying to live an authentically Catholic life.

On October 6, St. Thomas of Villanova Parish will join the dozens of parishes across the country offering the women's Bible study Walking With Purpose founded by Lisa Brenninkmeyer, a Catholic mother of seven. As Lisa has stated in interviews, Walking With Purpose began as a small group Bible study for women in response to their desire to have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ from a Catholic perspective. This is the ninth year that our parish has joyfully offered this study to the women of St. Thomas, their friends and family and any woman who is interested in knowing Jesus.

The weekly lessons are designed to meet every woman where she is in her faith journey. Many of us do not know the Bible at all and WWP is helping us fill that gap. Though written by Lisa it is obvious the Holy Spirit is really the ultimate leader of the study.

This year our parish is offering two studies: Opening Your Heart: the starting point designed for women who are new to Walking with Purpose as well as those with more experience in Bible Study and Touching The Divine which will draw us into a deeper relationship with Jesus as we reflect on Christ's personality. Knowing Him more intimately will increase our love for Him. St. John referred to himself as "the disciple whom Jesus loved." As we study, John will teach us how much Christ loves us and how His love is the true satisfaction of our souls.

We meet in the Parish Hall on Thursday Mornings from 9:15-11:15am with free childcare and Thursday Evenings from 7:00-9:00pm.

If you are interested in accepting Christ's invitation to come and see please email our chapter co-coordinator mariaomalley@comcast.net. To view sample lessons please visit walkingwithpurpose.com.

ATTENTION

The Sunday Evening Mass Schedule at the Villanova Church has moved to the 7:00pm Mass only until Sunday, August 21st.
